

Julie T. Li-Yu, MD, FPCP, FPRA, MSPH

Dr. Julie T. Li-Yu is an Associate Professor of the University of Santo Tomas (UST) Faculty of Medicine and Surgery in Manila where she also serves as the Head of the Joint and Bone Center of the UST Hospital. She is a dynamic force in various professional societies and is currently the President of the Osteoporosis Foundation of the Philippines Foundation, Inc and the Vice President of the Philippine Rheumatology Association. Her research expertise covers osteoporosis, osteoarthritis, gout, and SLE. She has contributed to local and regional guidelines and consensus statements on osteoporosis and gout. She was conferred several awards and recognition for her outstanding research contribution including the 2014 Philippine College of Physicians Exemplar in Research. She is a frequent lecturer in scientific congresses in various parts of the country and the Asia-Pacific region.